SHORT LOCALS.

Brief Items of Interest Throughout the Town and County.

The advertisements in The Herald make interesting reading. Read and profit by them.

And the new automobiles continue to make their appearance on our streets. Everybody's buying 'em.

Rev. J. B. Boseman will preach at the Baptist church Sunday morning at eleven o'clock and at 7.45 in the evening. Public invited to attend.

With the advent of the spring season come the fish fries at the river, one of the most frequent social diversions of the people of Bamberg.

Next Monday is the first Monday in the month and salesday. Master H. C. Folk is to sell at Denmark the property of the Denmark Machine Works.

The sales at the Bamberg post-office for the month of March, just ended, were the largest in the history of the town, showing that we are growing right along, as there is no better way to judge the growth of a town than by its postoffice receipts.

The receipts of the Bamberg Post-office for the year ending March 31st were $800 more than a year ago, that is receipts from March 31, 1913, to March 31, 1914, were $800 more than from March 31, 1912, to March 31, 1913. Pretty good raise for one year.

Messrs. H. W. Johnson, W. G. Hoffman, and G. Moye Dickinson, of this city, were delightfully entertained at a fish fry last Thursday on Mr. Joe Fender's place, near Ehrhardt, by Messrs. W. Max Walker, Phil Padgett, Ben Rentz, and Joe Fender.

It is stated that the Southern Railway will soon put a new train from Charleston to Atlanta. If this new service is put on, it will be quite a convenience to people in this section. The train going to Charleston will pass here about six o'clock in the morning and arrive about ten o'clock at night, giving a much longer day in Charleston.

The postmaster at Ehrhardt writes us that an effort will soon be made to get two new rural routes out from that office. Rural free delivery is a great developer of any country, and we hope the efforts of the good people in that section will be successful. More rural telephones and more rural routes will keep the white people on the farms and develop the country.

The postmaster here has written Congressman Byrnes and asked him to use his best efforts to have an experimental free delivery service established at this office. We are not at all sure that the department will make the experiment at Bamberg, as one town in the district already has the service, but we are going after it with the intention of getting free delivery for the patrons of the office if it is possible to do so.

Mr. W. C. Wolfe, of Orangeburg, was in the city Tuesday with his engineer. They were here for the purpose of taking measurements and getting blue prints showing the terminals of the Bamberg-Ehrhardt Railroad, with a view to getting to work on terminals and connections with the Southern Railway as early as possible. Track laying on the road has proceeded to a point about four miles from town, and the rails will be laid to Bamberg in two weeks or less.

Carlisle School Wins.

The Carlisle baseball team played its first exhibition game Friday afternoon, when they crossed bats with the Denmark team on the grounds of the latter and defeated them 6 to 2. The Carlisle boys did not allow their opponents to make the circuit until the ninth inning. Coach Merchant is happy over the way his team showed up in this game, and is feeling more and more confident that he can successfully defend the State prep championship won last year. The Carlisle team Friday, with but three exceptions, was composed of men on the championship team. Perhaps two or three other exhibition games will be played before the regular season opens on the local grounds, April 10, with the Charleston High School.

The students have just finished up the final examinations for this quarter. These examinations are usually counted the hardest of the year and there is always more or less rejoicing when they are over.

Postmaster Appointed.

Washington, March 31.—Joe L. Folk was to-day appointed postmaster at Jenny's, Barnwell county, succeeding Frank M. Jenny. This appointment follows the recent civil service examination for fourth class offices.

Carlisle Squad Cut Down.

The Carlisle baseball squad has been cut down from thirty to sixteen, men, and are showing up fine. So far it has been impossible for Coach Merchant to decide who will compose the chosen nine, but they hope to be in trim pretty soon to defend the honors which they won last year as "State prep champions."

They have back with them seven of last year's team, who are showing up stronger than ever.

The new players are proving to be pretty good material to add to the squad.

Church to Be Dedicated.

Secrets of the Wardrobe.

When Winston Churchill was running for the governorship of New Hampshire his opponents became pestiferously active, making speeches, writing letters and distributing campaign buttons, says The Popular Magazine. One morning a friend sent this telegram to Churchill:

"Have you no buttons for your supporters?"

The candidate was out of town and did not get the telegram, but a pretty girl stenographer did.

She sent this answering wire:

"No. We use safety pins.

(Signed) "Wiston Churchill."

A Custom Violated.

"Mister," said the wayfarer, "could you spare me a quarter?"

"Yes. Here it is."

"Ain't you goin' to warn me not to spend it for drink?"

"No."

"Nor give me a lecture on industry?"

"No."

"Ain't you goin' to hand out no advice at all?"

"None whatever."

"Here! Take yer money. I got too much self-respect to take your lucre if you're going to hold out on de customary civility an' sociability."

L. J. Owens Dead.

Denmark, March 25.—L. J. Owens, for a number of years the popular section master of the Atlantic Coast Line railroad, died at his residence last night at 11 o'clock of arterio sclerosis. Mr. Owens had been in ill health for some months, but had been able to return to his work. However, for the past week he had been ill. He came into town yesterday forenoon to attend some business, his physician having told him that the end was near. He called in his physician late in the afternoon, yesterday, and, telling him that he was conscious of the approaching end, asked for something that would relieve his breathing, which had become very distressing. Dr. Matthews, the attending physician administered some palliative and sat by him till the end, which came very peacefully. He leaves a wife and several children.

Missionary Society News.

The missionary societies, home and foreign, are making this year a special study of the temperance situation at home and in all lands. It is a well known fact that but for the devastation wrought by strong drink a very large part of our work would not be needed. To the student of these things it is startling to see that back of the great avalanche of intemperance is the lust for gold. Men would exploit the weakening and debasing appetites of their fellow men to fill their own pockets. They with Satanic cunning have even turned toward the children to train a new generation of drinkers who shall be ready to take the places of those who are daily going down into the outer darkness of a drunkard's hell.

It is interesting and encouraging to note among the temperance workers an ever growing number of the great ones. Emperor William of Germany after a careful study of the effects of alcohol has declared himself a total abstainer and in the army and navy discourages its use among the enlisted men.

And now the Czar of Russia is aroused by the fearful havoc wrought among his people, and a complicated situation he has to deal with as the government has monopolized the liquor selling and the revenues of the country are largely derived from this source.

Among the host of great ones in our own land who are lined up on the temperance side are President Wilson and Secretary Bryan.

The growing power and strength of our cause should be a source of great encouragement to us. Let us hope and pray on, work on. God is leading the fight and final victory is sure.

Gift for the Baby.

A very acceptable little gift for a baby and one which is easily made and is costly only in time and in the number of intricate stitches is a number of cap strings. These can be laundered separately and can either be sewed on the cap or pinned with tiny gold pins. These little pins should accompany the cap strings.

Very fine batiste or sheer lawn should be used, cut into three and one-half inch strips, fifteen inches long, which are then hemmed by hand. The ends may be made as elaborate as desired. Dainty hemstitching with an edge of tatting made of 70 thread is a charming finish. A tiny scallop with a beading insertion of real lace is also lovely, or embroidered ends with tiny wreaths of forgetmenots and eyelet dots may be used.

RACE RIOT SOON QUELLED.

Firemen in Missouri Town Play Water on Crowds.

Sedalia, Mo., March 29.—A race riot here early to-day was quelled only after the fire department was ordered out to aid the police and sheriff's deputy drive the combatants to their homes. The trouble arose at midnight between whites and negroes at a merry-go-round. Armed with brick-bats and clubs, several hundred persons battled in the downtown district for two hours. After several arrests were made the crowd was dispersed. No one was seriously injured.

Ice Company Decision.

In an opinion rendered Thursday, the Supreme Court holds that one circuit judge has not the right to review the acts of another circuit judge.

"Judge Rice had neither power nor authority to review, reverse or modify the decree of Judge Gary," says the Supreme Court, "who had passed the same while presiding in Bamberg county, even though he was the resident judge of the circuit of which the county of Bamberg is a part. He committed an error in his attempt to interfere with Judge Gary's decree. If there was any error in the decree, it was under the constitution and laws of this State, another tribunal for the correction of the same."

The decision was given in the case of A. G. Middleton against the Denmark Ice and Fuel company and the opinion was written by Associate Justice Watts. The appeal was by the Citizens' Exchange bank. The bank filed a claim with the receivers of the ice company for $3,765 with interest at the rate of 8 per cent. per annum and 10 per cent. of that amount as attorneys' fees. The claim was for money loaned and was secured by a mortgage on the company's property, which provided for the interest and the attorneys' fees claimed. The case was referred to a master. The master made report to the effect that the bank had first lien after the taxes. Subsequently Judge Gary filed his decree affirming the master's report. No notice of appeal from this decree was given. One of the receivers later secured from Judge Rice an order modifying the decree of Judge Gary and the case was then appealed to the Supreme Court.

SOON BE USING MILLION.

Day Not Far Distant Till Americans Will Have This Number Cars.

"The day is not far distant," says Harry R. Radford, of Pontiac, Mich., "when a million automobiles will be in the service of American owners."

"It only seems like yesterday that the automobile was a plaything for the frenzied few, a thing feared by its owner and detested by the populace. At best it possessed no more than a spectacular interest."

"Today, however, as you go down the crowded city streets or tour in the open country in any direction you discover that the automobile has entered in to the social and business life of the country as no other one thing has done since the world was made."

"You observe through the open barn door of the prosperous farm a car standing ready for the errands or pleasure of the family."

"You see heavy truck horses only occasionally now on the streets of the city, the big fast moving and big load carrying trucks having replaced them. And the light delivery cars speed up and down, making those quick calls which are so necessary to the economical delivery service of the big mercantile houses."

"Besides the small suburban home is the tidy garage which houses the car that carries the commuter to his work in the city."

"It has been the demand of the 'common folks' for a useful car at moderate cost rather than the expensive tastes of the privileged class that has so developed the automobile in this country."

Not a Wind Jammer's Puppet.

"Why didn't you get up and cheer with the rest of us? Aren't you a citizen of this country?"

"You bet I am."

"Aren't you proud of the United States?"

"Yes, sir."

"You don't seem a bit patriotic."

"Now listen to me. I'm as proud of my country as any man. I have as much patriotism as anybody living, but I'm darned if I'm going to let every wind jamming orator that comes along think he can make me cheer just by mentioning the Stars and Stripes."
